Embracing Change in the Liturgy

For many people, change does not come easy. Change requires us to stop doing things a certain way in order to do something else. Many people find comfort in familiar routines and known ways of acting. Change interrupts those familiar routines. But change is also an opportunity to stop and reflect on what we are doing and to come to a better understanding of God, who does not change.

Why does the Church change the Liturgy?

In its Liturgy, the Church always attempts to follow the “norm of the holy Fathers.” This effort “requires not only the preservation of what our immediate forebears have handed on to us, but also an understanding and a more profound pondering of the Church’s entire past. . . . this broader view allows us to see how the Holy Spirit endows the People of God with a marvelous fidelity in preserving the unalterable deposit of faith, even though there is a very great variety of prayers and rites” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 9).

The Liturgy must, therefore, always celebrate and make present the Paschal Sacrifice of Christ—his saving Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. However, over time, it may become necessary to make certain changes, such as adding prayers for recently canonized saints and adding texts that reflect the needs that the People of God wish to bring to God in prayer. The third edition of the Roman Missal makes such additions and provides a fresh translation of the Latin texts of the existing content of the Missal.

Who decides that the Liturgy should change?

Pope John Paul II approved the promulgation of the third edition of the Missale Romanum, the Latin text, on April 20, 2000. The final Latin edition of the revised text was published in March 2002. The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments was responsible for preparing the text. The Congregation is the Vatican office that the pope has charged with overseeing all matters related to the Liturgy and the sacraments. Any changes in the words of the sacramental formulas—the essential words in the celebration of each of the sacraments (either in Latin or in vernacular translations)—must be approved by the Holy Father personally. In addition, church law also gives to conferences of bishops (such as the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) as well as individual bishops certain responsibilities with regard to the Liturgy.

What exactly is changing?

The structure of the Mass (the order of the elements, the actions of the priest celebrant, and so forth) remains unchanged in the new edition of the Roman Missal. However, the translation of the prayer texts will change to more closely reflect the original Latin texts. In some cases, new options for prayers may be available, and some old options may no longer be present.

Will the changes be noticeable?

In the third edition of the Roman Missal, almost every prayer in the Mass—those spoken by the priest and those spoken by the people—has been retranslated from the Latin to English. Some prayers now recited by memory will need to be relearned, and the familiar language of many prayers recited by the priest will change.

In preparing the new translation, the translators were asked to make the English texts conform more closely to the Latin originals and to retain traditional theological vocabulary that communicates important concepts of the faith. The language that the faithful will hear and pray is more formal and somewhat more complex than the language of ordinary conversation. It conveys rich theological concepts and retains biblical language and images.

How can I prepare for the change?

There are many ways in which you can prepare for the changes in the Mass:

- ⊗ Make a conscious effort to participate more fully in the Mass each Sunday and holy day.
- ⊗ Take advantage of any special catechetical sessions offered by your parish or diocese.
- ⊗ Visit the Roman Missal Web site) to study the new texts and to learn more about the changes. (www.usccb.org/romanmissal)
- ⊗ Read the new texts of the people’s parts at Mass. Begin to study them so that you will be able to pray them well when the new Roman Missal is implemented.
- ⊗ Pray for a renewal of love for the Liturgy in your parish and in the Church.

What difference will these changes make in my parish?

Some of the differences will be obvious immediately. We will have to learn new musical settings for the various parts of the Mass. We will learn new words for common prayers, such as the Creed. Those of us who began saying the Mass prayers by heart long ago will need to rely on printed texts again, at least for a while. In the early months of the transition, we may find it more challenging to pray with one voice as people adjust to the new texts and gradually commit them to their hearts.

But these surface differences will give way to deeper and more significant changes. If we use the time of preparation well, we will make the changes with a deeper understanding of the Liturgy and a renewed reverence for and appreciation of the Mass. We will hear the prayers with new ears and with new hearts. Our Liturgy will be filled with new life and new spirit as we celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ made present for us.

Where can I turn for help in understanding these changes?

The first stop for catechesis and formation regarding these changes is your parish and diocese. All the faithful are encouraged to take advantage of parish efforts. You can attend catechetical sessions, read articles in the parish bulletin or newsletter or the diocesan newspaper, listen closely to homilies that help explain the changes, and come early to Mass to practice new musical settings for the prayers.

In addition, many dioceses, schools, universities, and retreat centers will offer programs to help people understand and appreciate the new translation. You can take advantage of these programs where possible.

The official Web site for the third edition of the Roman Missal is found at www.usccb.org/romanmissal. A variety of resources will be posted that may help you.

Catholic publishers and national organizations will publish many resources, in print and online, to help you negotiate this time of change. Check out your parish book rack or your local Catholic bookstore to see what is available.

What if I don't like the new translation?

For most people, the unfamiliar is always uncomfortable, at least at first. The more familiar the old is, the more challenging it may be to accept and embrace the new. It is completely normal to feel uncomfortable as you begin studying and reading the new texts. Taking steps to become more familiar with the texts can help a great deal. At the same time, be open to the possibility that you will find things to appreciate in the rich language of the new texts. The more you read them and study them and pray them, the more familiar and comfortable they will become and the more you will appreciate the theological depth they convey.

Taking the time to learn more about your faith, including the Mass and Scripture, can help you appreciate the new texts more fully. Using the catechetical opportunities made available by your parish and diocese can help you overcome concerns about the changes.

Finally, you can take your concerns to God in prayer. Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.

What can I do to make the process of change a good one for my parish?

Everyone has a role to play in preparing to use the new translations:

- ⊕ Study the new texts with an open heart and an open mind so that you will be ready to use them in the Liturgy.
 - ⊕ Take advantage of opportunities to learn more about the new texts by attending catechetical programs and reading articles about the new texts.
 - ⊕ Offer to assist your pastor or parish director of religious education in preparing parish catechetical events.
 - ⊕ If you are a parent, teach your children the new prayers and help them to understand the changes. Encourage them to participate in the Mass fully and to learn more about their faith.
 - ⊕ Be very intentional about celebrating the Liturgy each Sunday and holy day. Arrive on time (or a bit early). Pray and sing with attentiveness. Stay focused on the action of the Liturgy rather than letting your mind wander. Hold the Sacrament of the Eucharist in great reverence. Finally, give thanks to God in your heart for so great a gift.
- Times of change are always a challenge. But from this challenge can come a deeper appreciation of who we are as the Body of Christ, gathering to celebrate the Paschal Mystery of the Lord.

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall. Teens in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend all nights.

October Sunday Night schedule:

2 – PAL Night – See below

9 – Fiesta

16 – PAL Night

23 – “Ch, Ch, Ch, Ch, Changes”

31 – Halloween Social

Give It Away, Oh Baby Edition

This Life Night was very successful. LIFE TEEN was able to collect over 50 items to be able to donate to His Nesting Place, a facility for mothers facing unplanned pregnancies. The organization is always in need of diapers, wipes, powder, rash cream, blankets, toys and shampoo. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

PAL Nights

PAL Nights supplement LIFE Nights and will launch THIS Sunday. PAL stands for Praise, Ask, Listen. The nights will be held in the youth room on Sunday evenings prior to Phase 1 & 2 group meetings. They are for all high school teens, but will focus on those already confirmed or those in the confirmation process seeking an opportunity for more depth, who want specifically to grow in their prayer life. Nights will include: Praise and Worship Music, Scripture Study and Intercessory prayer. PAL nights will conclude at 8:30 PM.

Confirmation

Registration is closed.

Phase 1

Preparation toward the process starts with Mass and LIFE Nights. Phase 1 meetings will launch on Monday evenings after Oktoberfest/Fiesta. Our first Phase 1 gathering is a night for Parents and teens on Monday, October 17 in the parish hall at 7 PM.

Phase 2

Small groups are ready, and begin the week of October 17.

Blood Drive

Pope John Paul II called the donation of blood “an act of concrete solidarity.” During the summer, supply of units of blood in hospitals gets significantly depleted. October is respect LIFE Month. One unit of blood helps save 3 lives. Join St. Linus LIFE TEEN in helping assist the American Red Cross to save lives by donating blood!

Instead of the Hall, The Mobil Donation Unit will be in our parking lot. Plan to give the gift of LIFE on Sunday, October 23, between 8:30 AM – 2:30 PM. We especially need Hispanic donors. 7 of 10 Hispanics are universal donors, but only 1 of those 7 ever donate. We have an amazing Hispanic community here at St. Linus that could make a huge impact in our community by giving blood. Appointments are scheduled in 15-minute increments. Anyone interested in donating please call the youth room or e-mail, to schedule a time to donate. Walk-ups will be accepted the day of. Thank you in advance for your support of this very important service for our local community.

A message from the St. Linus School Community...

Greetings, Parishioners and St. Linus School Parents!

Adopt-A-Student Parishioners, our Adopt-A-Student fund is very low and we are reaching out to ask for your assistance. Your donation to our Adopt-A-Student Fund will help those families in need of tuition assistance. Remember, your donation is tax-deductible. Please help our school families in need at this time for the 2011-2012 school year.

There are still openings in some grades for the 2011-2012 school year!

St. Linus School new student applications (space available in grades K through 6) for the 2011-2012 school year are available in the school office from 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Prospective students for Pre-K must be 4 by September 1, 2011.

Prospective students for Kindergarten must be 5 by September 1, 2011.

Please call the school office at (562) 921-0336 for further information.

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY 2011-2012

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color or national and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, sex or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

SCRIP available in the school office!

SCRIP is available for purchase in our school office Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Remember to purchase SCRIP gift cards to use for grocery shopping, gas, restaurants and department stores. Proceeds from your purchases greatly benefit our school. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact our office at (562) 921-0336. SCRIP order forms are also available in the school office for your convenience.

HIS NESTING PLACE

A representative from His Nesting Place will be our guest speaker today. His Nesting Place is a home for homeless women and their children located in Long Beach. Since 1983, nearly 6,000 women and children have been housed and cared for through their ministry. Thousands of babies have been saved from abortion as well. We are sure you will be inspired by his presentation and we ask that you support this very vital ministry. If you or someone you know has a need or would like to help, please contact:
