Welcome to LIFE

With the beginning of a new year comes the beginning of the first phase of a similar model of youth ministry as we've had, but with a new name. Formerly known as discussion nights, one element of the ministry of LIFE TEEN is called LIFE Nights. They occur immediately after the Sunday evening Youth Mass and are held in the parish hall from 7-8:30 unless otherwise noted. All high school aged teens are invited and welcome to attend. Teens preparing for confirmation are expected to attend most Sunday nights, but teens already confirmed are encouraged and teens not in the process or with no formal religious background are invited to attend. "Welcome to LIFE" is a session designed to launch the name LIFE TEEN here at St. Linus and introduce the entire parish community (all parishioners, teens, parents, adults, middle-schoolers) to the element known as LIFE Nights. We would like to invite everyone to LIFE on Sunday, January 7, 2007. All participants in attendance get a chance to win cool prizes, including the new iPod Shuffle..."we hope you enjoy it."

ENGLISH BIBLE STUDY

You are invited to join us in Room 8 In the school building every Tuesday evening At 8:00PM for Bible Study. We furnish all materials necessary.

THE HEALING MASS MINISTRY

By: Sion Ferrer

The Healing Mass Ministry has been part of the St. Linus church since 2000. The ministry is jointly supported by the St. Linus English charismatic prayer group and the Elohim prayer groups.

The ministry has invited several presiders as follows:

Msgr. Joe Brennan, Fr. Tony Gomez, Fr. Mike Barry, Fr. Bill Adams, Fr. Ramon Valera, Fr. Mike Sears, Fr. John Struzoo, Fr. George Reynolds, Fr. Joshua Lee, Fr. Alec Aclan, Fr. Bill Delaney, Fr. Rosendo Silva, Fr. Jerry Thompson, Fr. John Hampsch, Fr. Corsie Legaspi, Fr. Nestor Rebong, Fr. Chris Troxell, Fr. John Vianney, Fr. Efren Borromeo, Fr. George Madella.

Brief Description of a Healing Mass

We all believe that every Mass is a Healing Mass. Therefore, during the mass, the priest or presider instructs those who receive the Holy Eucharist to enter into the healing process by taking their needs and infirmities to the Lord at the very moment they receive the Eucharist.

After the liturgy, the healing service begins. Usually, the priest will explain to the attendees what happens during the pray-over. A person can either be "resting in the Spirit". Often, blockages like lack of forgiveness, hatred, anger, fear, bitterness, long and deep seated anger against one person can deter the Spirit from allowing the person to receive healing.

Responses to this experience usually differ for each individual's openness to the Spirit and the condition of one's heart. Reactions such as openness, desire to be healed, forgiveness, petition, contrition, thanksgiving varies. Many individuals experience emotions such as deep peace too powerful to express in human language.

BIENVENIDOS A LA PARROQUIA DE SAN LINO

FAMILY LIFE

Family life is sacred, but it is not without trial. Perhaps this is the most important message we can glean from today's readings. If Jesus, Mary and Joseph can trip up sometimes—can disconnect—then we shouldn't find it surprising when such things happen to us as well. And parents everywhere (children, too) can probably relate to—and take some solace in—the Gospel's account of Mary and Joseph after Jesus explained why he stayed behind in the temple. They heard his words, Luke tells us, "But they did not understand what he said to them" (Luke 2:50). Amen! Nevertheless, Jesus does go back home with them, and continues to thrive under their care.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Tonight, at the turning of the year, you may catch a glimpse of the old year, a cartoon figure of a hunched old man with a sickle, Father Time. Where else but in this column could you learn that this is in fact a pope? December 31 was in the old calendar the feast of St. Sylvester. Legend says that Sylvester healed the Emperor Constantine of leprosy, and presided at the liturgy of baptism for the grateful Emperor. In 314, he was chosen pope, and it fell to him to organize the peacetime church, free at last from persecution. He founded the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome.

In northern Europe "Sylvester Night" is a time of great parties with eating, dancing, and singing—recalling perhaps the joy of the church in the fresh air of Sylvester's papacy. In Poland, there was great fear as the year 1000 approached that an immense dragon would devour the earth and set fire to the heavens. The people prayed earnestly to St. Sylvester, trusting that the saint would not permit such suffering on his feast day. They've been celebrating ever since!

Many New Year's customs have pagan roots, like the British "First Footer" tradition. The idea is that the first person setting foot into your house in the new year determines the luck for the year ahead. The ideal first footer was not a bit like old Pope Sylvester, but rather a tall, dark-haired man carrying the right gift. A handsome first footer meant the year ahead would be pleasant, and if he carried bread or a shovel of coal there would be food and warmth in the future. Who will be your household's first footer?

VIDA FAMILIAR

La vida familiar es sagrada, pero no faltan las dificultades. Este puede ser el mensaje más importante que encontramos en las lecturas de hoy. Si Jesús, María y José pueden tropezar de vez en cuando —desconectarse— entonces no nos debe sorprender cuando eso mismo nos ocurre a nosotros también. Y los padres dondequiera que estén (hijos también) pueden ver el parecido —y hasta consolarse— con el relato bíblico que habla de María y José después de que Jesús les explica porqué se quedó atrás en el templo. Escucharon sus palabras, nos dice Lucas, "pero ellos no comprendieron lo que les acababa de decir" (Lucas 2:50). ¡Amén! Sin embargo, Jesús sí se va con ellos para la casa, y continúa creciendo bajo su cuidado.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El primer Domingo después de la Navidad celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Los latinos somos un pueblo muy unido en familia. Para nosotros es más que un pequeño grupo compuesto de padre, madre, hijos e hijas. La familia para nosotros los latinos es un conjunto grande de abuelos, abuelas, tío, tías, primos, primas, compadres, comadres, suegros, suegras y otros más además del padre, la madre y los hijos. Para los latinos una fiesta que celebra la familia de Jesús es la cosa más natural del mundo.

Extrañamente esta fiesta no es muy antigua. En realidad es una celebración que data de comienzos de la época moderna en el siglo XVII. Antes de estas fechas la familia de Jesús casi siempre era entendida como compuesta por Jesús, María, y Ana (la madre de María). Se daba por hecho que José estaba por allí. Pero en el siglo XVII muchos perdieron sus padres a las fábricas y al trabajo fuera del hogar. Por eso el magisterio instituyó la conmemoración de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José para recordar a los padres cristianos su deber ante sus hijos y su esposa.

New Year's Day, Monday January 1st, Mass at 9:00 a.m.

Rejoice in Hope CDs available

Anna Betancourt and Monsignor Joseph Brennan just finished a new CD titled "Rejoice in Hope". After working on this project for six months, they are finally able to share the fruit of their labor with all of us. Enjoy the beautifully arranged sacred and inspirational songs that they have chosen for this recent CD. You can purchase your CD today at the parish office or Religious Education office for $15.00.

New Requirements for Deducting Contributions on Your Tax Return

Beginning in 2007, all cash gifts, regardless of amount, must be substantiated by a bank record that would be a cancelled check or credit card statement, or a written communication from the charity stating the charities name, the amount and date of contribution. Self created records (such as log books), which were previously allowed as support, will not be accepted.

If you donate currency and plan to deduct the contribution, you need to use envelopes. Our new envelopes are pre-numbered to assist us in tracking your contribution. If you did not receive envelopes, please contact the parish office to get on the list for envelopes. At the end of the year, the office can print a summary of your contributions to support your tax deduction.

Run for Vocations

January 8 is the Fest of the Baptism of the Lord and marks the start of National Vocation Awareness Week. The Archdiocesan Office for Vocations is in search of athletes to specifically support priestly vocations at this year's LA Marathon, Sunday March 4. If you're already planning to run, consider joining this elite team. Contact Sr. Kathy Bryant by emailing her at SrKBryant@la-archdiocese.org or calling 213-637-7515 for more information. Non-runners are encouraged to support the team in prayer. To commit to praying for the team or to get a copy of your own sponsor form in order to recruit other prayer sponsors for the vocations team contact the youth ministry office.

Faith and Media

Are you computer savvy? Do you stay on the cutting edge of technology? Would you like an opportunity to be more prepared for the Sunday Mass, by familiarizing yourself with the upcoming readings? If so, LIFE TEEN has just the thing for you. Join the youth of the parish and subscribe and listen to "Sunday, Sunday, Sunday" Podcast hosted by the Bible Geek, Mark Hart. A podcast is a downloadable radio show. It's completely free and can be downloaded by searching for 'lifeteen.com' in the itunes store. Help nurture your own spirituality and build the body of Christ, locally and universally by joining with others in prayer while reflecting on the Mass readings each week.

7-11 Ministry Day

The Office for Vocations offers a great experience for any adult, 18 years or older, who might consider a life as a priest or religious. The 7-11 Ministry Day is a great way for someone to ³shadow² a priest or religious as they minister to God's people - in a variety of ways. It is great for a person to experience what being a sister who works in a hospital would be like or what it means to be a parish priest - and so much more! It is an awesome chance for someone in discernment to deepen their awareness of these important ministries. The 7-11 Ministry Day will be held on Saturday, January 27, 2007. For more information please contact Sr. Kathy Bryant at (213) 637-7248 or srkbryant@la-archdiocese.org.
