Can You Hear Me Now?

Adolescents can be a challenging time for both a young person and their parents. Communication between an parent and their teenager during this time creates an added challenge. As usual all high school teens are invited and welcome to attend this evening and encouraged to bring their parents. The session is developed specifically for teens to participate with one or both of their parents. We would like to extend the invitation to younger adolescents in 7th and 8th grades and their parents. Join LIFE TEEN in the Hall immediately following Mass next Sunday evening, March 4, from 7 - 8:30 PM to address issues of parent-teen communication and learn effective tools of listening and communication. For additional information, see flyers at the side door of the Church.

Divorced & Separated Peer Ministry/Support Group

A support group for divorced and separated individuals will begin in March 2007, more details to follow.

The Separated & Divorce Group of St. Linus is a concerned Catholic resource for those suffering the grief surrounding the end of a marriage/relationship and to promote healing. We offer a safe environment where persons experiencing broken relationship may find spiritual and emotional help on their healing journey with renewed hope. As a peer ministry, this program will help deal with the natural grief process and offer an opportunity, through God, for turning the pain of loss into an experience of positive growth.

LET US PRAY

At the doors of the church this weekend you will find book markers with Daily Scripture for Lent, beginning with Ash Wednesday. You are invited to take one and make Daily Scripture part of your Lenten practice this year.

LIFE TEEN – Seven Essential Values

LIFE TEEN exists to lead teens and their families closer to Christ. That is our mission. To accomplish this mission, there are certain essential values professed and maintained by those involved in LIFE TEEN. These values are woven into the fabric of who we are as Catholic Christians, and they form the foundation for everything we do. They define the nature of our relationships and pave the road of our individual and communal walk of faith. As a ministry, LIFE TEEN embraces seven essential values. Each week we look at one of those values.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. LOVE 2. A SPIRIT OF EVANGELIZATION 3. JOY 4. FAITHFULNESS TO OUR PRIMARY VOCATION 5. AFFIRMATION | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. AUTHENTICITY - We live authentically, not denying our human weakness or shying away from the need for personal improvement, but working toward holiness, with resolve. The world needs quality examples of Catholic men and women who live out their faith. As leaders in ministry, we live our faith authentically, providing the living example of a Christian, and giving hope that other, too, can follow Christ. |

Q&A: Who's Who Who are the catechumens?

Trying to figuring out who's who is a common human activity. At weddings, funerals, family and class reunions we like to know who we are sharing our time with and what relationship they have—or don't have—to us. So it is with the church that gathers on Sunday for Mass. Many of the faces are as familiar as our own, but as with any healthy group, new faces are to be expected and welcomed. Some may be visitors, some may be fellow Catholics who have recently moved into the neighborhood, and some may be responding to a faint or fiery call to find out more about Christ and his church. The church opens its arms to these seekers with the wisdom and rituals of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (commonly called the RCIA).

People who are seeking to learn more about the Catholic faith and its mission fall into two main groups: catechumens and candidates. (Catechumen is a strange word. It comes from a Greek word meaning "to resound." The words catechist and catechism are related to it.) A catechumen is someone who has never been baptized; he or she may be an adult, a teenager or a young child. The journey to the waters of baptism normally takes place over the course of two years.

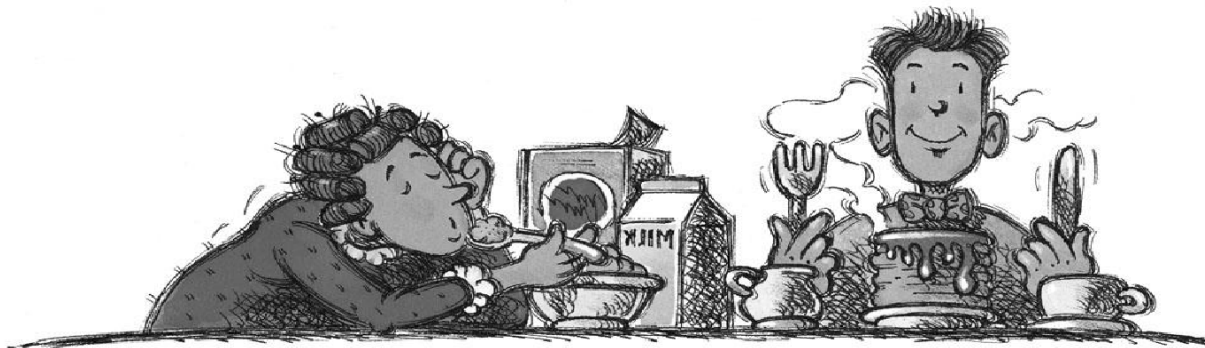

After an initial period of inquiry into the Catholic faith, those ready to do so publicly declare their intent to join the church and are accepted into the "order of catechumens." Then, with the help of catechists, sponsors and the entire community of believers, the catechumens begin to share in the life of the community and do what Christians do: read the scriptures, gather on Sundays with other believers and bear witness to the message of Jesus in word and deed. Often the catechumens are dismissed on Sundays after the homily to continue reflecting on the day's scriptures.

The liturgical year plays an intimate part in their introduction to the Christian way of life. Lent is a period of intensified preparation, beginning with a ritual when the catechumens are chosen ("elected") for initiation. Now they are called "the elect." At the Easter Vigil, the elect are baptized, confirmed and welcomed to the Lord's table for the first time. The Easter Vigil marks a high point in their journey—in much the same way that a wedding day is a high point in a couple's relationship—but, of course, the adventure has just begun.

This year our catechumens at St. Linus are Diana and Brion. Please pray for them.
