The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday.

We at St. Linus have been preparing a special shrine dedicated to the Divine Mercy of Jesus for several months. A painting of the Divine Mercy image has been commissioned from an artist in Poland by Fr. Tony and will arrive this week in time to be blessed on this special feast day.

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000 at the Mass for Canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that from now on throughout the church "This Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." In doing so, Pope John Paul II has recovered an ancient tradition of celebrating The Octave Day of Easter as a summary of the whole Paschal Mystery and the merciful love of God that shines through that Mystery. The revelations and devotional forms given to St. Faustina direct us and amplify for us this same Paschal Mystery and help us, the people of God, in our celebration of this great solemnity.

REGOCIJÉMONOS Y ALEGRÉMONOS

“¡Este es el día en que actuó el Señor: sea nuestra alegría y nuestro gozo!” (Salmo 118:24). Recordemos que estas palabras del salmo responsorial de hoy no sólo brotan del corazón de los que están reunidos en nuestra parroquia. También son cantadas por los pobres en pequeños barrios de toda América Central y Sudamérica. Son cantadas por aquellos a los que se les niega la libertad religiosa en nuestro mundo; estos cristianos elevan sus voces en lugares de culto clandestinos. Son cantadas por personas que han perdido seres queridos a manos del terrorismo y la guerra alrededor del mundo. Incluso en medio del conflicto y la división, los cristianos nos unimos para declarar que la pobreza, la soledad, la violencia y la división nunca jamás tendrán tanto poder como la Vida, la Muerte y la Resurrección de Jesucristo. Sin duda, ¡regocijémonos este día y alegrémonos!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Hace 3.000 años los chinos pintaban huevos de pato para celebrar la primavera. Los egipcios pintaban huevos en honor de la diosa Ishtar, mientras ingleses y alemanes lo hacían para celebrar al sol. Eventualmente la práctica continuó en honor de la resurrección de Cristo.

La costumbre de esconder huevos hervidos y pintados ha tomado nueva vida entre los mexicamericanos. Cada cuaresma mi mamá solía guardar los cascarones de los huevos que nos comíamos. Recuerdo con alegría la costumbre de colorear los cascarones el Sábado de Gloria para que la coneja nos los escondiera para la Pascua. Al día siguiente, después de misa nos reuníamos a buscar cascarones y romperlos sobre la cabeza de quien se arriara, para bañarlos con el confeti multicolor.

La costumbre de celebrar la Pascua con cascarones decorados es una bella tradición. Esta costumbre muestra que todas las naciones pueden agregar a la Iglesia cristiana tradiciones propias de su cultura, ya que Jesucristo dio su vida por todas ellas. Es justo celebrar la Resurrección del autor de la vida con símbolos de fecundidad y todos los colores del gozo.

HE RESUCITADO

He resucitado y aún estoy contigo, has puesto sobre mí tu mano: tu sabiduría ha sido maravillosa, aleluya.

ALELUYA

Siempre di aleluya, sin importar el momento del día, sin importar la época de la vida.

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad” (Psalm 118:24). Let us remember that these words of today’s responsorial psalm are not only sung from the hearts of those gathered in our parish. They are also sung by the poor in tiny barrios throughout Central and South America. They are sung by those denied religious freedom in our world; these Christians lift their voices in clandestine places of worship. These words are sung by people who have lost loved ones to acts of terrorism and war around the globe. Even in the midst of conflict and division, Christians still come together to declare that poverty, loneliness, violence, and division will never, ever have as much power as the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Indeed, let us rejoice this day and be glad!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Easter is a full two weeks earlier this year than last. Why does the date wobble around the calendar so? The way of calculating the date was set by the Emperor Constantine in 325. The decision ended a very bitter controversy in the church. Some people wanted to synchronize the Pasch with Passover on the fourteenth day of the Jewish month Nissan, and their opponents wanted it after the Passover was complete, on the Sunday after the first full moon of springtime. The ecclesiastical rules do not exactly connect with the astronomical rules. The emperor squashed the hopes of the quartodecimans, as the fans of 14 Nissan were called, and chose Sunday. The traditional rule is that Easter is the first Sunday after the first ecclesiastical full moon that occurs on or after the vernal equinox, the fourteenth day of the new moon, and later than March 21. Thus, Easter wobbles between March 22 and April 25.

The actual tables and methods for computing the date are extraordinarily detailed, with subtle variations and mind-bending exceptions and charts with “golden numbers,” “dominical letters,” and “epacts” measuring leap years. In 1954 and 1962 the ecclesiastical calculations actually overrode the astronomical new moons and bumped Easter back a month! Today, there is a movement in the World Council of Churches (Protestants and Orthodox) for all Christians to combine their celebrations, based on the star charts for the Jerusalem skies. The last time all Christians celebrated together was at the dawn of the millennium in 2001. In principle, the Catholic Church is open to an ecumenical agreement on a fixed date for Easter, but we desire a unanimous decision from the World Council.

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall unless otherwise noted. ALL high school teenagers are invited and welcome to attend. Those in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend most nights.

This Week: Easter – No LIFE Night, spend time with family.

Developmental Assets

Search Institute has identified a set of 40 building blocks of healthy development – 20 internal and 20 external - that help young people grow up healthy, caring and responsible. Each week an asset will be identified with tips on how to help build that asset at home or in the congregation. This week we transition from external to internal assets.

Asset #25 – Reading for Pleasure: Kids read for pleasure three or more hours per week. We can reinforce this asset in our homes by Modeling reading for pleasure. Talk with your children about what you're reading; make your enthusiasm for reading obvious to them. Explain how reading gives you pleasure while helping you learn about life and the world. Limit television watching. Visit: www.mvparents.com or www.search-institute.org for more tips on building assets as a parent, at school, or as a member of the parish community, or contact the youth ministry office for more information.

Youth Ministry Retreat

Theme Change. The Seuss theme has been shelved for a future retreat experience, but that does not mean there still won't be a fabulous weekend retreat experience. All High School teens are invited to attend and confirmation candidates are expected to attend. April 25-27. Contact the youth ministry office for more information. The same cover letter and permission slip can still be used. Please get deposits in early.

St. Linus Parish Adopt-A-Student Program

The St. Linus Parish Adopt-A-Student Program is a wonderful outreach service to members of our own parish community. If a school family finds themselves in a difficult financial situation due to a sudden job loss or illness, the Adopt-A-Student Program helps them with temporary assistance to meet their financial obligations to St. Linus School. We would like to thank all our fellow parishioners who have generously donated to this program. You have helped a child gain "an advantage for life" by being able to remain a student at St. Linus School. We hope that you are able to continue your assistance through the use of the Adopt-A-Student envelopes.
