World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Two of our primary calls as baptized Catholic Christians are to be holy and to follow Christ (Catechism of the Catholic Church 825, 1694). One of the ways to live out that call is through married life, but others of us are called to be priests, deacons, sisters or brothers. Next Sunday, April 13 is World Day of Prayer for Vocations, and as a member of the parish community of St. Linus, you are invited to pray that we all might better live out our primary vocation to be holy and to follow Christ. You are also encouraged to pray for those who feel a call to and desire for priesthood or religious life may find the courage to follow the example of Mary and say "yes" to what God is asking of them. Take a moment today to pray the prayer for priestly vocations by using the Cardinal's Prayer for Priestly Vocations on the back cover the Breaking Bread Song books in the pews or visit <http://www.usccb.org/vocations/prayers.shtml> for a selection of other prayers for vocations in both English and Spanish.

To celebrate this day in a special way, Long Nguyen, the seminarian our community is sponsoring in prayer who is scheduled to be ordained this Easter Season, will be here all weekend to thank us for our support and to preach at all Masses. Anyone wishing to attend the priestly ordination on May 31 at the Cathedral should contact the youth ministry office to reserve tickets.

EN EL CAMINO

Una metáfora importante que se emplea para describir la vida cristiana es la de una peregrinación. En la segunda lectura de hoy, Pedro se dirige a la primera comunidad cristiana: “Vivan siempre con temor filial durante su peregrinar por la tierra” (1 Pedro 1:17). Al pensar en una peregrinación, normalmente se nos ocurre algún tipo de movimiento del punto A al punto B. La peregrinación cristiana, que comenzó en las aguas del bautismo (punto A) tiene como destino final la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo (punto B). Desafortunadamente, en el transcurso tomamos todo tipo de desvíos. Debido al pecado, tontamente nos desviamos y a veces parecemos incapaces de detectar la presencia del Señor. Hoy, el relato de los dos discípulos camino a Emaús ilustra el hecho de que, aunque nos sentamos abatidos o muy desviados, el Señor está allí, caminando junto a nosotros.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Vicente Ferrer, patrón de los obreros de la construcción, falleció el 5 de abril de 1419. Este santo varón nació en Valencia, España, en 1350, vivió y predicó el evangelio en una época muy difícil del cristianismo. Además de la peste, guerras y otros problemas sociales, la iglesia estaba dividida por dos o tres hombres que insistían ser el verdadero Papa.

Vicente, un religioso dominico, dedicó su vida a reconstruir la Iglesia promoviendo la virtud de la caridad interna y externa mediante una predicación que relacionaba la palabra de Dios con la vida cotidiana. Vicente se valía de la teología, poesía, repetición y otros medios para inculcar la sabiduría bíblica en sus oyentes. De esta manera supo construir la fe tanto en los fieles y en la iglesia como comunidad.

Los cuadros de este santo español normalmente lo presentan con una llama ardiente en una mano y en la otra, con una Biblia abierta. De esta manera los artistas subrayan el amor ardiente que los cristianos debemos tener por la palabra de Dios, un amor que Vicente edificaba en el corazón de los fieles.

ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today's second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: "Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today's story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The church slowly developed customs of reserving some portion of the Eucharistic sacrifice for the sake of the dying. Today's custom of placing this portion in a tabernacle for prayer and adoration by the faithful cannot be traced back much beyond the year 1,000, much to almost everyone's surprise. There is simply no historical evidence of the Blessed Sacrament being present in a church for the purpose of having the faithful visit it or pray before it earlier in the church's history. People did visit, of course, but the center of their attention was the altar, symbol of Christ's sacrifice and the touchpoint between heaven and earth. Shrines and devotional altars abounded in medieval churches, but anything we might describe as a Blessed Sacrament chapel would be hard to find.

Amazingly, the Eucharist was first kept in private houses for the purpose of Holy Communion at home. As for church, the custom gradually developed of suspending a vessel shaped like a dove somewhere in the church, often over the altar. In the hovering bird, a few hosts, enough to satisfy the pastoral needs of the dying, would be secreted. The priest would lower the dove on a pulley as needed, but it wasn't a focus of devotion by visitors to the church. It was simply a way of reassuring bishops who were nervous about safeguarding the Eucharist. The dove solution caught on in England and France after Crusaders came in contact with the custom in their travels in the Orthodox East.

ENTRY

How else but through a broken heart may the Lord Christ enter in?

—Oscar Wilde

ONE BREAD

As this broken bread was scattered upon the mountains and was gathered together and became one, so let thy Church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into thy kingdom

—The Didache, second century A.D.

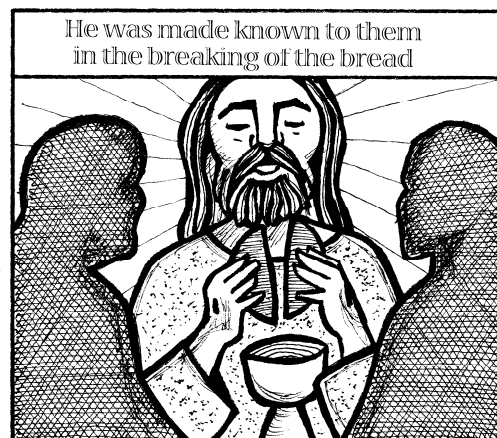

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Peter proclaimed to the crowds: God has raised the crucified Jesus, who now pours forth the Holy Spirit upon us (Acts 2:14, 22-33).

Psalm — Lord, you will show us the path of life (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Our faith and hope are not in the passing allure of silver or gold, but in God who raised Jesus from the dead (1 Peter 1:17-21).

Gospel — On the evening of the first day of the week, through his words and in the breaking of the bread, the risen Christ made himself known to two disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35).

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall unless otherwise noted. ALL high school teenagers are invited and welcome to attend. Those in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend most nights.

This week we continue the semester theme on Scripture with a LIFE Night called "I AM" that takes a look at the Gospel of John.

Developmental Assets

Search Institute has identified a set of 40 building blocks of healthy development – 20 internal and 20 external - that help young people grow up healthy, caring and responsible. Each week an asset will be identified with tips on how to help build that asset at home or in the congregation. This week we transition from external to internal assets.

Asset #27 – Equality and Social Justice: Kids place high value on promoting equality and reducing hunger and poverty. We can reinforce this asset in our homes by gathering information about organizations that assist or advocate for people who are poor, starving, or suffering from inequalities. Have a family discussion to decide which one(s) your family will support. Young children can set aside part of their allowance; older kids can chip in a portion of their earnings from jobs and chores. Visit: www.mvparents.com or www.search-institute.org for more tips on building assets as a parent, at school, or as a member of the parish community, or contact the youth ministry office for more information.

Youth Ministry Retreat

"In Search of God" the Spring Youth Ministry/Confirmation Retreat is just a few weeks away. All High School teens are invited to attend and confirmation candidates are expected to attend. April 25-27. Contact the youth ministry office for more information. The same cover letter and permission slip can still be used. Please get deposits NOW!

Confirmation

Sunday, May 4 the community of St. Linus Parish will celebrate confirmation with the youth and adults of our parish at the 5:30 evening Mass. Bishop Alex Salazar, our regional bishop, will be here to confirm our candidates, please keep them in your prayers these next few weeks.

Confirmation Registration materials for candidates wishing to apply to phase two of the process and any teens who are Graduating 8th graders or older wishing to begin phase 1, by registering for youth ministry will be made available starting May 18 after the 5:30 LIFE TEEN Mass. That evening we will host a special "Welcome to LIFE Night." All graduating 8th graders transitioning into youth ministry are invited and welcome to attend. It will be a great opportunity to start making relationships with peers and leaders in youth ministry. For complete confirmation registration a copy of the baptismal certificate, a current photo of the teen, $75 yearly fee, and the completed registration form must all be returned by August 24, 2008.

Youth Ministry First Communion

In addition to their preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation, the following teens will be receiving first communion at LIFE TEEN Mass on April 19: Paulo Manlapaz, and Martin Saucedo Jr.
