Q&A: Another Wedding

What does it mean to “convalidate” a marriage?

We probably all know at least one couple who were not married according to the legal requirements of the Catholic church. Perhaps the couple were married in a civil ceremony. Or maybe they were married in the church of the non-Catholic partner without having gone through the procedure of receiving a dispensation from the Catholic church. Perhaps one of the partners had been married previously and was not at the time of the new marriage canonically free to marry again.

It is not unusual for such couples to wish later to have the Catholic church formally recognize their marriage. They are encouraged to discuss their situation with their pastor and explore the possibility of convalidating their marriage. Convalidation is the process by which the church recognizes a marriage that did not previously meet the requirements of canon law.

In a simple validation process, a couple in a stable marriage participates in some form of preparation, and then renews their consent—“I do”—in the presence of a priest or deacon and two witnesses. This renewal may take place with as much or as little ceremony as the couple and their pastor decide is right for them.

Each couple’s circumstances differ, of course, calling for different procedures. In any event, the process of convalidating a marriage respects the needs of each couple as well as the teachings of the Catholic church. Through it, the couple’s experience of married love is interpreted in a new context—the paschal mystery—the pattern at the heart of every Christian marriage.

FED BY THE LORD

Jesus' words "This is my body" and "This cup is the new covenant in my blood" were only part of his table blessing. Jesus twice said: "Do this in remembrance of me" (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25).

This is the good news of today's solemnity. Like the five thousand hungry souls, we are fed by our Lord. This is not food that satisfies for only a short time, until the next meal. It is food that lasts and changes us. It is food for sharing in much the same way as Melchizedek did when he brought bread and wine to the returning Abraham.

As children of God's reign, we are blessed to be able to receive and share God's gift. And we do so in the way most appropriate to our state in life—as parents, children, husbands, wives, or religious.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram (Genesis 14:18-20).

Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek (Psalm 110).

Second Reading — As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Gospel — Jesus spoke to the crowd about the kingdom of God and then fed them with five loaves and two fish. They all ate and were satisfied (Luke 9:11b-17).

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

– Summer LIFE

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall unless otherwise noted. Nights for the summer will be scheduled until 9 PM. ALL high school teenagers are invited and welcome to attend.

Those in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend most nights. Our summer semester is designed to help teens meet friends, build community and assist those coming into the process with a smooth transition. Summer is a great opportunity to bring a friend.

June 17 - Dads and Grad's

This night is a June celebration of Dads and Grad's designed for the whole family with a BBQ and Softball game. All are welcome to join in the fun.

June 24 – Solstice Celebration

The day with the longest light is the summer solstice, June 21. The main format of the night is oral communication with an opportunity to play games and share stories. The evening concludes with S'mores. Yum!

July 1 – Ice Cream Sundaes: Unlimited Flavors and Toppings

Participants collaborate to create 25-foot ice cream sundaes for two purposes: to build community and to celebrate the spirit of openness that Catholicism promotes. Members of Holy Spirit and St. Mary Magdalene Youth Ministries from Los Angeles will be here to join us in the night.

July 8 – Water World

Participants work together in small groups to learn how water is crucial to our lives, and how water is also an essential part of our faith. Bring a towel!

July 15 – Show and Tell

What's important to you? Remember how much fun it was in elementary school? Well it's still just as fun. Bring an item of significance and be prepared to tell the group why it's special to you.

KARIM AT JASMIN

The Filipino Association of St. Linus Church is inviting you to watch the first ever, original classic Filipino musical opera, “Karim at Jasmin”. A timeless story of love and intrigue, of duty and passion. Its original music and libretto was written by one of our parishioners, Ramon Sison Geluz, a member of the 9:00 AM English Choir and the Filipino Choir. Alex Lagman, our organist/pianist, will be the musical director.

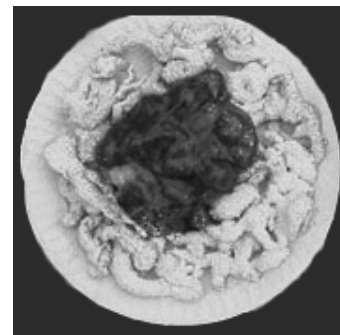

This musical opera will be performed at the Long Beach Convention Center Terrace Theatre on Saturday, June 23, 2007, with 2:00 PM and 8:00 PM shows. Tickets are $50 and $65 each. For tickets and best seating arrangements, please call Rosalinda Tandoc at (562) 865-3293, or Mike at (562) 547-4306; e-mail ticket orders to rsgeluz@yahoo.com. Please make checks out to MRG Services, Inc.

Note: subtitles will be made available during the performance and the program will have an English translation.
