Cardinal George Announces Vatican Approval of New Roman Missal English-Language Translation, Implementation Set for First Sunday of Advent 2011

U.S. Adaptations to Mass Prayers Also Approved
Parish Education Efforts Urged To Precede Implementation
Resources Available Through USCCB

WASHINGTON—Cardinal Francis George, OMI, Archbishop of Chicago and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), has announced that the full text of the English-language translation of the Roman Missal, Third Edition, has been issued for the dioceses of the United States of America.

The text was approved by the Vatican, and the approval was accompanied by a June 23 letter from Cardinal Llovera Antonio Cañizares, Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments. The Congregation also provided guidelines for publication.

In addition, on July 24, the Vatican gave approval for several adaptations, including additional prayers for the Penitential Act at Mass and the Renewal of Baptismal Promises on Easter Sunday. Also approved are texts of prayers for feasts specific to the United States such as Thanksgiving, Independence Day and the observances of feasts for saints such as Damien of Molokai, Katharine Drexel, and Elizabeth Ann Seton. The Vatican also approved the Mass for Giving Thanks to God for the Gift of Human Life, which can be celebrated on January 22.

Cardinal George announced receipt of the documents in an August 20 letter to the U.S. Bishops and issued a decree of proclamation that states that “The use of the third edition of the Roman Missal enters into use in the dioceses of the United States of America as of the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011. From that date forward, no other edition of the Roman Missal may be used in the dioceses of the United States of America.”

The date of implementation was chosen to allow publishers time to prepare texts and parishes and dioceses to educate parishioners.

“We can now move forward and continue with our important catechetical efforts as we prepare the text for publication,” Cardinal George said.

In the coming weeks, staff of the bishops’ Secretariat of Divine Worship will prepare the text for publication and collaborate with the staff of the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL), which will assist Bishops’ Conferences in bringing the text to publication. In particular, ICEL has been preparing the chant settings of the texts of the Missal for use in the celebration of the Mass. Once all necessary elements have been incorporated into the text and the preliminary layout is complete, the final text will go to the publishers to produce the ritual text, catechetical resources and participation aids for use in the Liturgy.

Receipt of the text marks the start of proximate preparation for Roman Missal implementation. Before first use of the new text in Advent 2011, pastors are urged to use resources available to prepare parishioners. Bishop Arthur Serratelli of Paterson, New Jersey, Chair of the Bishops’ Committee on Divine Worship, voiced gratitude for the approval.

“I am happy that after years of preparation, we now have a text that, when introduced late next year, will enable the ongoing renewal of the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy in our parishes,” he said. Msgr. Anthony Sherman, Director of the Secretariat for Divine Worship of the USCCB noted, “A great effort to produce the new Roman Missal for the United States, along with the other necessary resources, has begun. Even as that work is underway a full-scale catechesis about the Liturgy and the new Roman Missal should be taking place in parishes, so that when the time comes, everyone will be ready.”

During the Lenten Season we make available quarter offering envelopes that many parishioners take home and faithfully return filled with money. The money is donated to Mustard Seed Communities in addition to a Seminary in the Philippines and Casa Hogar Convalescent Home in Jalisco, Mexico. Please read the following Thank You notes we received from two locations where your Lenten sacrifice was greatly appreciated.

Con gusto los saludo deseando lo mejor para todos los integrantes de esta Parroquia, que el Señor los siga manteniendo unidos para que sigan practicando las obras de misericordia.

El motivo principal de la presente es para expresarles mi más infinita gratitud por el donativo de 428.27 (cuatrocientos veintiocho dólares 27/00) que de su generosidad recibimos. Este donativo lo utilizamos para ayuda del sepelio de la Sra. Ana cleta Quezada Sandoval persona indigente que no tenía familiares y la cual falleció en esta Casa Hogar.

Que Dios les devuelva el ciento por uno y les conceda la gracia de la FE. Cuenten con nuestras oraciones y nuestros mejores deseos para cada uno de Ustedes y sus familias.

Atentamente:

Hermana Celia Pedroza Vázquez

Dear Rev. Fr. Tony,

May the love and peace of Jesus, Mary and Joseph be with you always.

I would like to express our deepest gratitude in behalf of our Religious Community of the Alagad ni Maria (Philippine Disciples of Mary) and the F.A.M.I.L.Y. (Friends of Alagad ni Maria Inspired to Lead the Youth) for the generous support you have given for the Fund Raising Concert. Your generous donation of $ 428.27 will really go a long way to its success. We are halfway there in fulfilling our dream for providing a place for prayer and a sanctuary for the Youth in the Philippines. The Seminary and Youth Chapel—Phase One Construction has been accomplished.

Once we have the necessary funds after Season Two of “One Heart...Four Voices,” we shall commence with the Second Phase which will hopefully make the Chapel available for the Retreats, recollections and activities we conduct for the moral, spiritual and integral formation of the youth. We shall keep you posted on the developments regarding the Construction of the Chapel. Our Community has also decided to construct a Youth Cross to commemorate the generosity of the people who has given of themselves to accomplish our dream.

You and your loved ones are remembered in our Mass intentions, prayers and sacrifices. Rest assured that our loving God will reciprocate your generosity with His abundant blessings.

Yours in Jesus, Mary & Joseph,
Fr. Thomas Paul K. Naval, AM
AM-US Priests Coordinator
