TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On Good Friday, at the heart of the Triduum, the commemoration of the Lord's Passion is colored by sobriety and decorum, but today the mystery comes in a luminous celebration of Christ's victory. In its deepest origins, it is the feast of a dedication of a church, since in the year 335 the Church of the Holy Sepulchre was dedicated on September 13, and on the following day the "true cross" discovered by St. Helena was brought outside to the faithful for veneration. It is a great feast of the Eastern Church, which often marks it by having the whole assembly prostrate themselves on the floor honoring the life-giving cross.

At the core of the tradition is the quest of Helena, mother of the Emperor Constantine, to acquire the cross and the nails of the Crucifixion from the ruins of Jerusalem. When she was satisfied that she had found them, thanks to the healing of a sick man whose body was placed on the cross, she had her son fund the building of the great basilica. The history of the relic is complicated, especially because it was carried off by invading Persians in the year 614 and "went missing" for fifteen years. Today's feast does not celebrate the relic, but rather the life-giving cross from which salvation flows. It's a good day to look around your house or office: Don't those walls look bare without a cross? What better day to remedy that?

CHRIST'S HUMILITY

Our age has been called the Age of Entitlement. We seem to have lost the ability to distinguish between needs and wants. Advertisers frequently urge consumers to grasp at more and more goods because "you deserve it." Our expectation of reward seems to be disproportionately high for the effort we put forth to earn it. Certainly everyone deserves the basic rights of human life: food, clothing, shelter, freedom, and peace. But this language of deserving doesn't seem to be applied to these things. It is inevitably appended to the desire for luxuries, honors, and riches. It seems to be designed to appeal to our greed rather than our need.

In that context, Paul's simple statement about the humility of Christ stands in stark contrast: "Christ Jesus . . . did not regard equality with God something to be grasped" (Philippians 2:6). And how did he humble and abase himself? By becoming human, one of us. What could we possibly think ourselves entitled to?

MERCY

Dost thou wish to receive mercy? Show mercy to thy neighbor.

—St. John Chrysostom

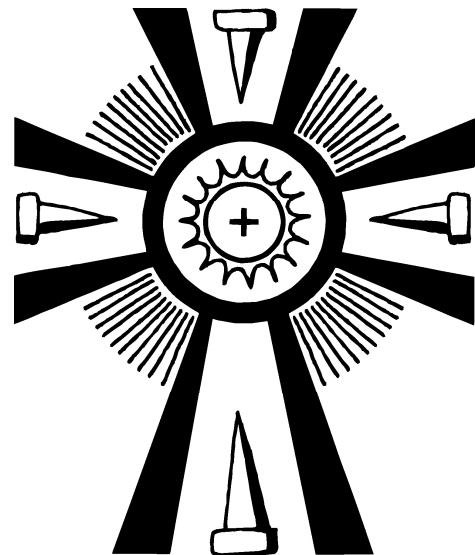

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, they lived (Numbers 21:4b-9).

Second Reading — Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped (Philippians 2:6-11).

Gospel — God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that those who believe might have eternal life (John 3:13-17).

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall unless otherwise noted. Teens in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend most nights.

Our first LIFE Night and Fall Kick off is Sunday September 28. This night will welcome back our teenagers from their busy summers and help new teens entering youth ministry feel welcome, meet new people, and understand the importance of their involvement in Youth Ministry.

The LIFE Night the following Sunday, October 5 launches our semester theme of educational nights, where the focus is the Person of Christ. "A River Runs Through It" is about our response to God's free gift of Himself. This night will provide teens with the definition of faith and the role the Church plays in our faith.

Rummage Sale/LIFE TEEN Fundraiser

This summer was a time of organization and re-organization. During the process many exciting treasures were found in the youth room that are no longer used for ministry. You can reap the benefits. Sunday, September 14, Youth Ministry will host a rummage sale and hospitality after all Masses, including our Noon Mass. A variety of items will be available, from electronics to dozens of unused candles. Come out and see what gems you can discover. No prices will be marked. Take what you like and make a fair donation to support ministry with youth at our parish. Thanks in advance for your generosity.

Mass on the Grass/Fall Equinox

Fall begins on September 22, so to celebrate our families, and gear up for autumn Youth Ministry is hosting a summer send-off. All families are invited to come to the LIFE TEEN Mass early. Arrive at 4:19 PM to play organized family games. Pre-Mass Praise and Worship starts at 5 PM. As always, Mass starts at 5:30 PM. Bring blankets to sit on and a picnic dinner to enjoy after mass on the benches outside the hall. It's sure to be a great way to enjoy a time of fellowship, build community, bid farewell to the dog days of summer, and transition into the new school year.

Youth Confirmation / Final Deadlines

School has started, Autumn is in the air, and a new year of ministry is underway. Requests for registrations have been made; in the bulletin, in Mass announcements, and with calls home. This week is the last week for any teens interested in registering for youth ministry with the intention to start phase one of confirmation. Re-registration for phase two is now closed. Teens may participate in youth ministry, but will not be placed in a small group for immediate preparation.

A required welcome session for parents and teens entering youth ministry/LIFE TEEN is this Thursday evening, September 18, also from 7-9 PM in the Hall. A mandatory candidate and sponsor session for phase two teens will take place on Sunday, September 28, from 1-4:30 PM also in the Hall.

We would like to thank all of our parishioners and visiting parishioners for being extremely generous with your weekly donations in helping our parish. Our collections for the week of SEPTEMBER 7, 2008 was $12,717.35. May God bless you all.

Think Blue

Dodgers are in first place for the first time since the beginning of April. There's a renewed excitement and energy at Dodger Stadium with the acquisition of future Hall of Fame slugger, Manny Ramirez, and pitching legend Greg Maddux. With less than two weeks in the regular season left and post-season opportunities in sight, tickets for the opening game of the last Home series will be highly sought after. Catch the fever, Support LIFE TEEN, and enter for a chance to win 4 Infield Reserve tickets to see the Dodgers take on the San Diego Padres Tuesday, September 23rd at 7: 10 PM. More than $120 Value! Raffle tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5 and will be sold after masses this and next weekends. The winner will be drawn during the opening rally of "Mass on the Grass," at 5:25 PM, Sunday, September 21. Winner need not be present and will be contacted by phone.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY TRAINING

We know the pain and sorrow that strikes a family when death comes to a loved one. Here, at St. Linus, we have a bereavement ministry that offers comfort, support, help and direction to the family in their time of need. If you are interested in being part of our bereavement team, the archdiocese is offering training. The program will begin at St. Pancratius in Lakewood on Wednesday evenings, September 24, 2008 through November 5, 2008 from 7:00pm to 9:30 pm including one Saturday, October 18th from 9:00 to 3:00. This is a wonderful opportunity for service to our church community, for doing corporate works of mercy and for evangelizing in many cases.

Please consider this invitation to be part of our bereavement team. For more information contact Anna or Deacon Chuck at the Parish Office, (562) 921-6649

Dear Friend,

In hopeless situations (our STORMS) where everything seems dark:

S – stand up to it – with strength from God

T – thank God for anything that is positive – there must be EVEN one!!

O – overcome the temptation to give up

R - rally around all your positive energies

M – me – what is MY relationship to MY God in this time....

S – start afresh – sometimes God is knocking us hard to tell us to change course

Let us thank God that He is always ready to forgive our sins and to welcome us home.

Please know that you remain in our thoughts and prayers... Today, we would like to pray for those persons who have lost faith in themselves and fail to believe that there is recovery.

Have a thankful Week!
