A MASS WITH A HEALING SERVICE

PLACE: St. Linus Catholic Church
DATE: Monday, Sept. 17, 2007
TIME: 7:30 PM
CELEBRANT: Fr. Joshua Lee

Fr. Joshua is the Pastor of St. Hilary's Church in Whittier, CA. He is a charismatic priest and a gifted preacher. He was a nurse by profession when he received the call to enter the priesthood; responding to the Spirit's call, he became a Benedictine monk at St. Andrews Abbey for several years prior to taking on duties as a pastoral priest with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Fr. Joshua is a dynamic and well sought speaker at the annual SCRC Charismatic Convention; he is also a spiritual director and a retreat master.

Last July 2002, the Lord effected the healing of a cancer patient at St. Irenaeus Church's healing mass services through the ministration of Fr. Joshua. Come with your family and friends and experience the anointing healing power of the Holy Spirit.

Divorced & Separated Peer Ministry/Support Group

The Separated & Divorced Group of Saint Linus is a concerned Catholic resource for those suffering the grief surrounding the end of a marriage/relationship and to promote healing. We offer a safe environment where persons experiencing a broken relationship may find spiritual and emotional help on their healing journey with renewed hope. As a peer ministry, this program will help deal with the natural grief process and offer an opportunity, through God, for turning the pain of loss into an experience of positive growth.

This group will meet on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month in the Parish Center from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. For more information contact: Rosa Muro at (562) 485-7689.

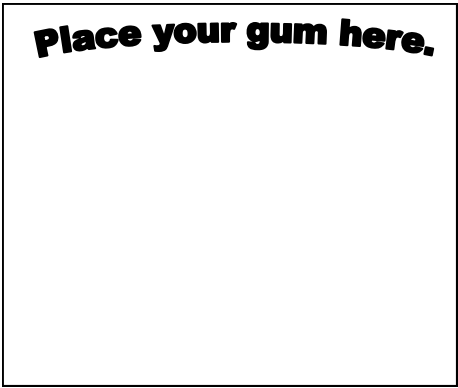

Youth Ministry/LIFE TEEN

LIFE Nights are catechetical meetings that immediately follow the Youth Mass on Sunday evening from 7:15 - 8:45 PM and take place in the parish hall unless otherwise noted. ALL high school teenagers are invited and welcome to attend. Those in preparation for confirmation are expected to attend most nights. Our summer semester is designed to help teens meet friends, build community and assist those coming into the process with a smooth transition. Summer is a great opportunity to bring a friend.

No LIFE Nights for August (See Below for Fall Kick off)

Hey! Seuss is Loose.

Have you got your toothbrush, your towel and your shoes? If you forget your sleeping bag you'll be singing the blues! Hurry, let's go! There's fun to be had. Teens who sit home will surely be sad. For who knows the adventure that waits past your door, the future is now, and it's sure not to bore! All high school aged teens invited to attend. If they're in confirmation be sure, you should send. Flyers, and permission slips available now. Tough to pray? Come with us, we'll show you how. The fun you will have puts a smile on your face, get your paperwork turned in, 'cause there's limited space. One twenty-five is all you will spend, investment indeed for a spirited week's end. Nine 21 to Nine 23, you're sure to have fun, take a chance, come and see.

KARIM AT JASMIN

With many of our parishioners and other guests I was in the audience when the opera "Karim at Jasmin" had its first performance on American soil, at the Long Beach Terrace Theater on June 23rd. "Karim at Jasmin" is a mythical fairytale for the old and the young, set in the Southern part of the Philippines. The songs are beautiful, and even if they are sung in Tagalog, the sub-titles enabled me to follow the storyline without any trouble. The singers had gorgeous voices and the costumes of the cast were so colorful: a feast for the eyes. All in all, it was truly a very enjoyable performance for those in attendance. (By: Jane Rolfes)

Due to popular demand, this first original Filipino opera embarks on its U.S. Cities and World Tour beginning September 21 and 22, 2007 (Friday & Saturday) at the La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts, located at 14900 La Mirada Boulevard, La Mirada.

Both performances start at 8:00 PM. Ticket prices are $40 and $50. (Part of the receipts will go to feed the starving children in Zimbabwe, Africa.) For tickets call the MRG Tickets Hotline: (562) 455-7250 or (562) 677-5340.

Important note: subtitles will be made available during the performance.

The Piarist Fathers

The Piarist Fathers were founded by St. Joseph Calasanz in Rome in 1617. In addition to the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, the Piarists take a fourth vow to educate youth. They operate between 195 and 200 schools in 32 countries around the world. One of those schools is located in the Appalachian region of eastern Kentucky.

We are asking for your support in helping us not only in our educational work in Appalachia but also in our many outreach programs designed to help those living in poverty in the mountains.

The three Piarists stationed in eastern Kentucky minister to the Catholics in four counties who number less than 1/2 of 1% of the population.

The Piarist Mission in Appalachia

During the spring of 1988, the Provincial Chapter of the American Province of the Piarist Fathers decided to send two priests to work in Appalachia to pursue the work of the Piarists in the field of education. They went to Eastern Kentucky to work in the newly-established diocese of Lexington. That November the Piarist Superior General instructed them to open a high school there, which proved to be a formidable assignment, considering the poverty of the area and the inability of the diocese to provide material or financial assistance.

Nevertheless, in August of 1990 the Piarists opened a college preparatory high school in Floyd County, one of the poorest counties in the State, to serve both Catholics and all those desiring a quality education in a Christian setting. Taking into account the extreme poverty of the people and keeping the charisma of St. Joseph Calasanz in mind, the Piarists decided the school would be tuition-free and dependent on the charitable contributions of the people of God for its existence.

The Piarist School opened with one freshmen class, and added a class each year until the 1993-1994 school year, when the school had its first four year program. Then, on May 28, 1994 the school graduated its first class.

Today, the Piarist School continues to grow, increasing its enrollment every year. The school is accredited by the state and is a member of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, fielding teams in basketball and cross country.

One other important program is our outreach to the poor. Each year, hundreds of people send down good, used clothing and school supplies for the children. Dozens of volunteers work on short-term emergency home repair projects. Some volunteers stay and teach at the school for a year. Every Christmas, Piarist School students deliver presents to needy children, and most of the gifts are donations received from our many co-missioners. Much work has been done, but there is still much to do.

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

September 23, 2007

10:30 Mass

All catechists are invited to attend.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Why do we celebrate Catechetical Sunday?

A: In 1935, the Vatican published On the Better Care and Promotion of Catechetical Education, a document that asks every country to acknowledge the importance of the Church's teaching ministry and to honor those who serve the Christian community as catechists. For the first few years after Catechetical Sunday was established, national catechetical congresses were held in conjunction with the celebration. Since 1971 the USCCB's Department of Education has produced materials to help parishes celebrate the event at the local level.

Q: The word "catechetical" is unfamiliar to most people. What does it mean?

A: The word might be more familiar than you think. Many Catholics have used the word "catechism" for years, and they know it has something to do with the compendium of the Church's teachings. The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound." Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church.

Q: Why do we have a special day set aside to commission catechists?

A: Catechesis is a distinct and special ministry in the Church. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church makes clear, "Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the Church's life . . . her inner growth and correspondence with God's plan depend essentially on catechesis" (no. 7). This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church. It is only fitting that we set aside a day to highlight this ministry and invite the entire church community to think about our responsibility to share our faith with others.

Q: How are parents, the primary catechists of their children, recognized on Catechetical Sunday?

A: Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. In the National Directory for Catechesis, we read:

While the catechesis offered within the family is ordinarily informal, unstructured, and spontaneous, it is no less crucial for the development of the child's faith. "In a certain sense nothing replaces family catechesis, especially for its positive and receptive environment, for the example of adults, and for its first explicit experience and practice of the faith." The catechesis of infants and young children nourishes the beginnings of the life of faith.

"God's love is communicated to infants and young children primarily through parents." Parents have shared the gift of human life with their children and, through Baptism, have enriched them with a share in God's own life. They have the duty to nourish it. Their faith, their attitude toward other human beings, and their trust in a loving God strongly influence the development of the child's faith. Parents are catechists precisely because they are parents. Their role in the formation of Christian values in their children is irreplaceable. They "should speak naturally and simply about God and their faith, as they do about other matters they want their children to understand and appreciate." (NDC, p. 202-203)

On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes an optional blessing of parents and guardians.
